2022/2023 Event Calendar

Mon | Sept 12 | 10am

The Harvey Team — Pam and Mike Harvey, will share their years of experience in residential real estate. They are agents of renown Ebby Halliday and will provide us with important insight into the ever changing "home market."

Thurs | Oct 13 | 10am

What is the Twilight Zone and why is it important? What have WHOI scientists learned from two recent expeditions and what discoveries lie ahead? Ocean Twilight Zone project lead, Philip Renaud, will share this amazing adventure.

Mon | Nov 14 | 10am

Cara was elected in May 2019 as the District 12 representative to Dallas City Council. Her legislative agenda includes lowering the property tax rate, supporting first responders, fixing potholes, providing better parks, addressing government inefficiencies. She will speak to us about the challenges and rewards of public service.

Mon | Dec 12 | 10am

Avid adventure traveler and enthusiast, Dan Reckmeyer got bored like the most of us during the COVID Era. So, he decided to do something that kept him six feet apart from others and yet checked the box on another bucket list item. Riding across the U.S. on a bike.

Mon | Jan 9 | 10am

Dr. Holden served 31 years on the University of North Texas (UNT) Counseling Program faculty. Since retiring in 2019, Dr. Holden's primary research focus has been near-death experiences, after-death communication, and other experiences that transcend the usual personal limits of space, time, and identity.

Mon | Feb 13 | 10am

*Dr. Jack Holl was a professor of history at Williams College at the University of Washington. He also served at the Eisenhower Foundation and continues to evaluate on the Eisenhower Foundation research grants at the Dwight D. Eisenhower Presidential Library. He will be discussing his book, The Religious Journey of Dwight D Eisenhower.*

Mon | March 13 | 10am

*"Of all the Mozart Piano Concerto—this is one of my favorites. I call it his "Eroica" moment because this is where Mozart (like Beethoven) presents his calling card as the preeminent composer in the world. It's in D minor—the key of Don Giovanni which Mozart wrote in 1787, just after his success with The Marriage of Figaro. Mozart has an intensity in this piece that jumps off the page! Crazy storms and passion that you will not forget!*

Mon | Apr 17 | 10am

TR Sullivan was a sports journalist for 40 years and spent 32 years covering the Texas Rangers for the Fort Worth Star Telegram and MLB.com. He will be sharing his stories about the Rangers and baseball in general.

Mon | May 8 | 10am

Earl and Eileen Eliason are frequent world travelers. Everywhere they go, Earl brings his cameras and talent for recording beautiful images from their visits. Their most recent adventure was to the wild, white and blue of the frozen continent at the most distant southern end of our planet. His photographs will give us a "southern exposure" to that land and their journey.
